STRIKE OIL SAND, DRILLERS PREPARE TO BRING IN WELL

Kingwood - Gillette Operators to Know Fate Within Forty-Eight Hours.

The Kingwood-Gillette well in 35-5-6, 11 miles northeast of Ada, is the center of attraction in the local oil field just now. The casing stands on an oil sand found at approximately 1800 feet, and within 48 hours the owners expect to know their fate.

The sand was reached Wednesday and the drillers have completed the under reaming and have lowered the casing to the cap rock. The sand will be drilled in within the next few hours.

A good showing of oil was found when the sand was first tapped, but the drilling was stopped immediately to get the well in shape to be drilled in.

Geological formations surrounding the Kingwood-Gillette well are considered ideal for a good producer and the men who have spent their money in the test are of the opinion that their faith will be rewarded abundantly.

Ed Gillette, the well known local oil man, is a heavy investor in this test, and judging from the smile he is wearing the last few he is feeling good over the prospects.

Carter-Nance-LaSelle Move

The Carter-Nance-LaSelle syndicate have made a new location in 32-5-6, 12 miles northwest of Ada and four miles northwest of the well recently abandoned by them in 14-4-5. Drilling will start at the new location as soon as a riser is completed and machinery can be placed on the ground.

Showings of oil were found in two sands in the well just abandoned, one at 1008 feet and the other at 1270 feet, but the owners announced that oil was not found in sufficient quantities to pay.

They are of the opinion that a large pool of oil will be found somewhere in the country northwest of Ada, and are led to believe that they tapped the edge of the pool in their first well.

Transcontinental Active

The Transcontinental Oil company spudded in on their deep test well, in 14-5-4. Thursday drilling has been stopped temporarily until a gas line can be completed to the well. It is thought that this work will be finished by Monday and the drilling will proceed.

The Transcontinental is one of the strong companies, and their appearance in the Ada field is regarded as a favorable indication.

CONDITIONS FINE FOR FARMING, SAYS BUREAU

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 3.—Soil and moisture are good in practically all parts of the state. Winter grains are generally in "very good conditions," and plowing for spring crops is progressing, states the synopsis of the weather and crop condition of the state for the week ending February 1, issued by the Weather bureau here today.

Temperatures were moderate during the week with a slight deficiency in sunshine and no precipitation of any consequence, says the report.

"Wheat pasture is generally not as good as usual," adds the summary.

"There is still lots of low grade cotton in the fields, but very little picking was done during the week, because the farmers are busy preparing the soil for other crops."

"Wheat, cotton and stalk fields are furnishing fairly good pastures and stock continues in very good condition."

GIRL WEDS IN MA'S TOGS, GROOM JAILED

NEWKIRK, Feb. 4.—Mother's clothes had a strong attraction to little Mildred Wayne since she first put on dresses and posed before a mirror in her mother's home here.

So Monday she raided her mother's wardrobe, selected a large picture hat, veil and other womanly accessories and in company with Andrew Rothrock, a local youth, she appeared before the marriage license clerk asking for a permit to marry.

Groom Is Arrested.
The clothes, which could not deceive her mother passed admirably by the license clerk and the couple were married against the wishes of their parents.

Now mother has demanded her large picture hat and stolen dresses from Mildred, age 14, and Father Wayne has sworn out a warrant against Andrew Rothrock. Rothrock pleaded guilty to a charge of perjury before District Judge Bird and this bond has been fixed at $1,000.

Is Mary Married? The Question Now

CARSON CITY, Nev., Feb. 4.—Within a few days the question of whether Mary Pickford and Owen Moore will be forced to prove they secured a divorce in good faith will be up to a Nevada judge for decision. Attorney General Fowler announced today that he had practically completed a brief covering the question of right to bring suit to annul the divorce and this brief will be filed at Minden, Nevada within a day or two.

Houseboat Is Slow, Harding May Change

"Victoria" Nosing Along
Toward St. Augustine
Stops at Palm Beach.

BALM BEACH, Feb. 4.—Unless President-elect Harding's houseboat Victoria can shake the jinx which has followed her since she left Miami Friday morning, her company probably will be transferred to a master conveyance ashore in order to get them back to St. Augustine on schedule time. The houseboat cannot travel at night and it will require good luck and uninterrupted sailing during the daylight in the next two days to get her back to St. Augustine by Sunday night, which is the time limit set by Mr. Harding on his vacation cruise.

During his stop here the president-elect arranged to take luncheon privately and to keep away from the crowds about the Palm Beach Hotel.

GAMBLER GIVEN 35 YEARS FOR MURDER

BARTLESVILLE, Feb. 4.—After an all night deliberation, the jury of the district court here returned a verdict of guilty against "Gabe" Ira Morrow and sentenced him to 35 years in the state penitentiary at McAlester for the murder of Douglas Bixler in a card game here last September.

According to witnesses Morrow had been drinking heavily and was losing in the game when he suddenly staggered to the door, stopped and whipped out an automatic and commanded the players to "throw them up." Without a word of warning he fired a shot which hit Young Bixler in the forehead and passed out the back of his head, causing instant death.

Japan Wants Peace, No Chance for War

To Fight U. S. Would Mean
Bankruptcy, Writer
Says.

(By the Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4.—Japan desires more than anything else to maintain friendly relations with the United States. J. Kennedy, head of the Kokusai News agency of Japan, declared in an address before the Kiwanis club here last night.

Mr. Kennedy, who has just completed a tour of the United States after about fifteen years in the far east said that everywhere he went there has been asked whether there is to be a war between the two countries.

"If it were not for the serious side of that question, involving as it does the suggestion of a created possibility, indeed a probability, the question itself would be childishly absurd," he declared.

"I can give you the most solemn assurance that if there is one thing in the world that Japan wishes to avoid more than anything, it is the rupture of friendly relations between this country and herself.

"We must keep before us always the fact that there are at work today two powerful influences, backed by large resources seeking to create a rupture not only between countries bordering on the Pacific but the countries bordering on the Atlantic.

NOW GERMANY IS CRUSHED, NATIONS MAY REDUCE ARMS

Need Only Half of Navy for Defense, Official
Says.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—An international conference to discuss disarmament will be called by the United States, Chairman Butler, of the house navy committee, said today when the committee met to hear the views of prominent naval officers on the subject.

Chairman Butler did not say when the call would be issued, but from his line of questioning of witnesses it was assumed he thought the call would be issued soon after the inauguration of President-elect Harding. Mr. Butler recently conferred with Mr. Harding at Mar- ion.

Rear Admiral William S. Sims, war time commander of American overseas naval forces, was the first witness examined by the committee. With Germany's power crushed, Admiral Sims said, all nations could reduce their naval disarmament by half without danger.

Congress must determine national policies before naval officials can form any naval plans, the Admiral said, adding that until he knew what those policies were he would not say whether the United States could afford to have a navy second to any other.

If the navy were maintained purely for defensive purposes, Admiral Sims said the United States would be safe with a navy half as large as that of any possible enemy thousands of miles away. If, however, the United States intends to rely on its navy for carrying out broad international policies, he said its sea power should be equal to that of any other nations.

Newberry Still Leads.

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The recount of ballots in the Michigan senatorial election of 1918, finished by the senate election committee, left Senator Newberry, republican, with a plurality of 3,334, over Henry Ford.

Mr. Ford made a net gain of 3,233 in the recount, but Senator Newberry's original plurality was 7,567.

DEMPSEY AND WILLARD FIGHT IS POSTPONED

(By the Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3.—The fifteen round bout between Jack Dempsey, heavy weight champion and Jesse Willard, former champion, scheduled for March 17 in New York, has been indefinitely postponed. Dempsey declared here today.

The champion said he had received a telegram from New York from his manager, Jack Kearns, announcing the indefinite postponement of the match.

He said he had received no detailed reason, but understood it was because of the ruling of the New York boxing committee, limiting the price of admission to $15.

DISCOVER STILL AND BOOZE IN HEART OF CITY

(By the Associated Press)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 4.—One man is being held today by federal officers in connection with a liquor raid last night by prohibition enforcement officers, said to be the largest ever made here. Two thousand gallons of wine, forty gallons of moonshine whiskey and a still were seized by the officers.

The man arrested was armed and was guarding the liquor when the raid was made on a building on the east side which formerly housed a factory.

POPPIES FROM SHORE OF LAKE LOUISE TO BLOOM IN QUEEN OF ENGLAND'S GARDEN

When the Duke of Argyll was Governor-General of Canada, his Duchess, the Princess Louise, was fascinated by the beauty of the Canadian Pacific Rockies and it was accepted as a very happy compliment when a large lake of exceptional beauty, discovered in 1882 by Tom Wilson, a famous guide at Banff, was named after her Royal Highness. The lake was named the "Lake of the Little Fishes." Today the Indians would probably describe it as the "Lake of Golden Poppies," for the Canadian Pacific Railway has planted vast quantities of beautiful Iceland poppies on the shores and hills surrounding the "Great Chateau Hotel." This poppy is a large perennial and has multiplied so that in summer there is now a blaze of brilliant poppy blossoms about the hotel and lake.

When the delegates to the Imperial Press Conference returned last fall from Canada to England, Miss Billington, the one woman delegate, mentioned the exceptional beauty of these poppies to Princess Louise, who expressed a desire to obtain some of the seeds. These were sent to Her Royal Highness in a specially made box of Canadian maple wood, and were accepted with expressions of great delight. The tale of Lake Louise's poppies came to the ears of the Queen, who also received a consignment. Her Majesty was equally delighted and gave orders that the seeds should be planted in the Royal Gardens at Balmoral. There, for many a summer to come, the Royal Family will be pleasantly reminded of the most exquisitely beautiful spot in the Canadian Rockies.

FIRE DESTROYS FAMOUS HOTEL

'Bon Air' Had Housed Notables; Million Dollar Property Loss.

(By the Associated Press)

AUGUSTA, Ga., Feb. 4.—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Bon Air, Augusta's largest tourist hotel, at 2:30 this morning.

The loss including personal belongings of guests, was unofficially placed at one million dollars. None of the 260 guests were injured, being awakened by a night clerk shortly after the fire was discovered. Many were carried to safety by the firemen.

In recent years the hotel had been the winter home of former President William H. Taft, John D. Rockefeller, Nathan Strauss and many other notables. The building was valued at about eight hundred thousand dollars and is understood to have been fully covered by insurance.

HOUSE MEMBERS WANT OLD-FASHIONED DANCE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 4.—Old-fashioned dances are favorites with the members of the house of representatives when they lay aside their official dignity and seek diversion to light-tripping music, according to their sentiment expressed Thursday afternoon when invitation was read to them to attend the chamber of commerce ball in their honor on next Tuesday night.

"I move we ask them to cut these shimmy-trots and give us just what we can dance," suggested Porter Newman of Durant. The house applauded. The invitation was accepted without reservations.

Governor Robertson offered the invitation on behalf of the chamber. Complete arrangements for the ball will be announced Friday, it was expected.

FREE NEGRO WOMAN OF MURDER CHARGE

(By the Associated Press)

TULSA, Feb. 3.—The jury in District Court No. 2 acquitted Mattie Rice, a negro, Wednesday, of the charge of shooting to death Camilla Edwards in "the Africa" August 18, 1919. The Edwards woman was killed while she lay sleeping in her bedroom.

The Rice woman lived in the upper story of the house next door, and the state endeavored to prove she fired the fatal shot from her window.

CONNECTICUT MAN CONFESSES MURDER

(By the Associated Press)

MILFORD, Conn.—John Kacean-skas, 38, was arrested here early today charged with the murder of Mrs. Joseph Chernock here yesterday. The officials said the accused man admitted killing Mrs. Chernock by beating her with a cobbler's iron stand, after which he searched the house until he found $110 which the husband of the dead woman had saved to pay interest over a mortgage for his home. Mrs. Chernock was the mother of six children, the youngest of which was a month old.

200 PREACHERS IN NEW YORK HIT BLUE LAW

Adopt Resolution Opposing Legislation to Curb Sunday Recreation.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—A resolution opposing Blue Law legislation was adopted here by almost 200 Seventh-Day Adventist clergymen meeting in the Seventh-Day Adventist Temple, Lenox avenue and 128th street. The meeting recorded itself as in opposition to any measure, "blue or otherwise," designed to restrict Sunday recreation.

"Since Sunday is a religious day," said Charles S. Longacre, executive secretary of the Religious Liberty association, "it is impossible to draft a law compelling its observance that is not a religious law. Such laws not only are contrary to the principles of the constitution by which they are forbidden, but to the very principles of Christianity, for which their advocates of the clergy profess to stand."

"Jesus Himself opposed the blue law movement of His day and declared 'The Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath,'" said the Rev. Dr. John R. Trexler in addressing the convention of the Lutheran Leagues of New York, held in the Lutheran church of the Advent, Broadway and Ninety-third street. Dr. Trexler is pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Brooklyn.

Innocent Woman Dies After 42 Years in Pen

Pardoned Five Times, But Refused to Leave the Prison Walls.

RALIEGH, N. C., Feb. 4.—Sarah Wyckoff, 76 years old, is dead in the state prison after 42 years' imprisonment, during which she five times declined a pardon at the hands of as many governors and after she had lived to learn that a deathbed confession had completely exonerated her of the charge for which she was sentenced.

Forty-two years ago Sarah Wyckoff entered the state prison to serve a life sentence, as the convicted accomplice in the murder of her husband, Wesley Wyckoff in Alexander county, in the mountains of North Carolina. The convicted principal, a negro was hanged. Three years ago from the mountains came word that a deathbed confession had absolved the woman of connection with the tragedy. Then, for the fifth time she refused a pardon, explaining that she was being treated well, and that time had shattered all her relations with her family in the mountains and that she preferred to spend her last days amid surroundings she had learned to know so well.

NO FEAR IN LOVE—There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.—1 John 4:18.

THE WISE POLITICIAN.

Whether a man be a member of the town council, the state legislature or the senate of the United States, it behooves him to keep the home folks always in mind. If his ward wants a particular improvement or does not want it, the alderman should work to see their wishes observed. If the bulk of citizens in a county feel a certain way toward a certain proposition, the representative of that county should work for them in the legislature. If a state believes a certain thing is right or a certain thing is wrong, the senator from that state should work for it or oppose it.

In this way does a politician succeed, providing there is a certain admixture of consideration for the city, state or nation as a whole. If a politician once in office develops a disregard for the wishes of his constituents, if he attempts to concern himself too greatly in general affairs, he finds in time that an opponent has topped his total of votes and that he is again a private citizen.

The really keen politician reminds himself frequently that it isn't a game he is playing, that he is in business, acting as an agent for the people who elected him, commissioned to get things done for the public benefit. Such politicians place high value on the opinion of the home folks, and seeks constantly to satisfy them.

This means general good government, for local benefits mean a benefit to the whole.

THE LESSON OF THRIFT.

One does not have to hark back many months to recall the period when industrial workers were pointed out as the best customers of the stores that dealt in silk shirts and other articles of apparel that were once regarded as among the luxuries. There is no consolation to persons out of employment in telling them that they should have saved part of their money when they were earning the highest wages in the history of American industry, yet that is exactly what should have been done.

Thousands of persons permitted themselves to be deceived by the industrial activity which prevailed during and immediately after the world war. But the so-called "rainy day" arrived in spite of the optimism, or perhaps indifference, of a large number of workers, and they find that they are poorly prepared to stand the effects of industrial depression. A few dollars saved when employment was at high tide would enable these persons to maintain themselves now in reasonable comfort.

It is too late now to provide against the present financial emergency, but is there not reason to believe that other emergencies will arise in the future, just as they have in the past? The practice of thrift is commendable at all times. It becomes a principal with the successful man, and in the case of wage earners especially it provides a safeguard against the day when employment may not be so remunerative, or, as in the case of many thousands at present, it ceases entirely.

SAVING COST OF MARKETING.

More to eat, plenty to feed and something to sell, says Farm and Ranch, would be a desirable plan for cotton growers who are striving to find a way for better living. With an abundance for the family table and enough feed for as many animals as the farm would sustain economically, markets would not be so scarce nor so unsatisfactory. When markets are demanded for our product to supply all family needs and buy feed for animals, they can scarcely withstand the strain, especially when that product must be sent out of the country to be manufactured.

We need a plan that will supply our needs as nearly as possible without selling crops or animals to bring what we can produce on our farms. What we sell should be to buy what we need, but cannot raise on our farms.

When a man does not want to do a thing which his heart cafeteria, he almost regrets that he voted for woman suffrage, especially if he has only half an hour for lunch.

It is sometimes amusing to observe the class of persons who are doing most of the worrying about the liberties of the people.

The sensitive woman who has a husband with deficient table manners is convinced that Job was a mere piker in the patience game.

Any married man knows that another married man is trying a bluff when he seeks to create the impression that he is boss in his own home.

The housing problem will be solved when a man feels that he can move out because his neighbor plays the saxophone.

Any man will tell you that he gets inspiration out of smoking, but other folk do not notice that he is any smarter.

YOUR MANNERS

It Is Correct

For a gentleman who has conducted a lady to the dining room at a reception to return with her to the drawing room as soon as she has finished.

When talking with the hostess during a lull in the stream of arriving guests at a reception to move away when others come up.

When giving a small tea in honor of a friend to issue visiting cards bearing the guest's name written below the hostess' as "To meet Miss Blank, of Washington."

To write the hour and date in a lower corner when using visiting cards for invitations.

It Is Not Correct

To issue invitations to a small tea more than a week in advance. For a servant to announce guests at an informal tea.

To hold an evening reception before nine o'clock.

For a debutante receiving with her mother at a reception to leave her side during the early part of the afternoon.

To arrive at an evening reception after eleven o'clock.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Groundhog Day

Editor Evening News, Ada, Okla.

Dearest Ed—You did me a great favor yesterday by telling your readers that the second day of February is Groundhog Day. I was raised in a country where there were no groundhogs, but where tobacco was grown for the use of the old people who got lots of pleasure out of the old clay pipe, and where they planted and raised their own smoking.

They always burned their tobacco beds on the 13th day of February, because they said that the 14th was Groundhog Day. Now, Mr. Editor if the second day of February is Groundhog Day, I want to know if because my old friends, some of whom are still living, want to be right on the matter of burning their tobacco beds.

If the second is the day, then they have always been burning their beds on the wrong day, and I want to go back there and set them right on this most important question.

Thanking you for a correct solution of this important matter, and in advance for the correct day, I beg to remain yours, very much in trouble over this hog day.

R. C. ROLAND

It's a long story, Bob, one that takes up back into the dim recesses of the past where rest the beginnings of things. The natives you speak of are wrong. Groundhog day is February 2, as stated by the News before, and not February 14. Rest assured, however, that this difference of a few days will have but little effect on the burning of the tobacco beds. There is no need for alarm.

February 2 is also Candlemas Day, in honor of the purification of the Virgin Mary. On that day Jesus Christ was presented in the Temple.

The groundhog theory is of American origin. As far back as our memory can serve us and according to the most eminent authorities, February 2 has always been Groundhog Day with the American people.

We confess to you, Bob, that we do not know how the groundhog got to America. It is a native of Africa, a member of the Oryzomys Capensis family. It is but one of the bog species. There are many varieties of hoggy-root right here in Ada, even though we may have no groundhogs to speak of.

Indian and White Man Clash on Main Street; Are Fined

With blood streaming from gashes on his head, and with his shirt almost torn to shreds, Est Edwards, a full-blood Chickasaw, created considerable excitement on Main street yesterday afternoon when he made his way toward the police station to tell his tale of woe.

"George Ford did it," he told Chief Gotcher who lost no time in getting to the scene of the encounter.

Ford was brought before Mayor Kitchens and was fined $10, and costs of court for fighting and disturbing the peace.

The wounds on the Indian's head were dressed by a local physician. Edwards made a bond of $15 to appear before the mayor this morning to answer to a charge of fighting and disturbing the peace, but when the hour set for his trial rolled around, he failed to show up. The bond money was forfeited to the city treasury.

According to the story told by the Indian, he was going down Main street when Ford and a companion attacked him. Ford, he said, struck him with a closed knife, inflicting a gash after gash on his head. The Indian fought back, according to the story told by eye witnesses, and made things interesting for the other two.

Edwards has not filed a charge of assault and battery against Ford. It is said the row was over a liquor argument. The fight took place in front of a grocery store on East Main street.

The Indian's wounds are not serious.

OLD PEOPLE CELEBRATE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

DEER CREEK, Jan. 26.—"Grandpa and Grandma" Lane, familiarly termed in Deer Creek and vicinity, on January 16 celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary at their home near here. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lane were married in Iowa in 1859 and since that time have weathered the pioneer days of four states—California, Nebraska, Kansas and Oklahoma.

Behind an ox-wagon, the Lanes, early in 1860, journeyed overland to the gold rush in California. Later they settled in Nebraska and then Kansas, and when the Cherokee strip was opened to settlement, they came to Grant county and settled on the farm on which they celebrated their last anniversary. Although Mr. Lane is 85 years old, he gave some of the "youngsters" a hard go during the last wheat harvest. Mrs. Lane is 87.

THE LEGISLATURE

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 4.—An echo of the crime wave that has swept over the country this winter, was heard in the senate of the Oklahoma legislature today, when bills relating to highjacking and kidnapping were introduced by Senator Davidson, democrat of Tulsa. The bills would make kidnapping of any one under 12 years of age a felony and provide a penalty upon conviction by death or life imprisonment, with a prison sentence of 25 years for conviction on a charge of highjacking. The bill relative to highjacking defines the crime as "robbing by the use of a deadly weapon." Bail in any highjacking case would not be less than five thousand dollars, with the preliminary hearing within ten days of the time the crime was committed.

The house bill which would set aside the mill and a half ad valorem tax levy declaring it null and void, was reported unfavorable by the committee on revenue and taxation in the house. It was explained by the legislature such action was taken in order to give the senate bill on this subject full way in the house. The senate passed yesterday a bill conferring upon the state supreme court original jurisdiction in taxation matters.

FEDERAL COURT REFUSES TO STOP LAND DEASING

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 4.—Application for injunction against the state school land department to prevent the leasing of lands for oil and gas development has been dismissed from the federal court at Kansas City, according to word received at the attorney general's office, here.

The application for injunction was filed in the February court here about a month ago and affected a tract of land in Kay county.

Leases to millions of dollars worth of oil and gas lands in the state would have been affected by a decision in the case, it was said.

Thirty-four members and guests were present and the afternoon was spent in playing popular parlor games.

A delightful game of "Charades" was played by the entire crowd, with Miss Knight and Miss Keller leaders of the two divisions.

Some of the charades were very amusing and caused much merriment. A piano solo was very ably rendered by little Mary Idealia Patterson, and an interesting reading given by Margaret Chilcutt.

Delicious refreshments, consisting of chicken salad, olives, sandwiches coffee and cream were served to the guests and all left at a late hour declaring Mesdames Moser Gowing, Roberts, Fowler, Chilcutt and Chaffin delightful and most entertaining hostesses.

McSwain.

Vaudeville and pictures, Raynor Lehr's Right Now Co. playing at the McSwain theatre this week changing their program daily, are an aggregation of real dramatic artists together with high class vaudeville acts. The comedian very clever and of the kind that gets laughs without smut, the chorus good looking and good dancers. The picture program is made up of the following: The Son of Tarzan, a Jungle Serial, A two reel comedy and a two reel Western, a complete change in vaudeville and pictures.

American.

If your baby sister were a victim of malnutrition, if she were ailing, too, for want of proper environment, fresh air and other things that most children are fortunate enough to possess, would you not sacrifice a great deal to provide her with them?

To this question Natalie Storm made affirmative answer. Natalie made woman's greatest sacrifice to protect her sister from the hardships that had caused the death of their mother.

She threw to the four winds her chances of happiness with the man she loved to go with a man she detested that she might get for the child who was all in all to her the comforts and sweets in life she herself would never enjoy.

Would you say this was a brave thing to do? Or would you call it wickedness?

What do you think the man in the case, Natalie's sweetheart, said and did when he returned from South America, whither he had gone to amass a fortune to lay at Natalie's feet?

This is the story and the problem, briefly, of "Love," Louis Joseph Vance's scenario, which J. Parker Read pr., has made into an Associated Producers photodrama to be shown at the American theatre today with Louise Glaum in the role of Natalie Storm, James Kirkwood as the man and Joseph Kilgour as the tempter. Wesley Ruggles directed.

GENTLE CORRECTION

"PULSIFER seems mighty touchy," observed the retired merchant. "He was talking to me this morning and shooting holes through the king's English in his usual reckless way. I called his attention to a few of his grammatical errors. Instead of being grateful he shook his fist under my nose, and said that for three sons he would push my face through the back of my head. I can't understand that sort of conduct. I'd thank any man who would correct me when I make errors in my speech."

"In a horn you would," commented the hotelkeeper. "You think you put up a fine line of English when you are talking. You are satisfied you never make any bad breaks, so feel safe in saying you would welcome criticism, but if some sharp who is wise to all the fancy curves of the language came along, and showed you where you get off, you wouldn't wince your hand in an ecstasy of gratitude. No, doggone it, you would climb on his person and discolor one of his eyes."

"If there's any man makes me tired and sore, it's the one who calls me down when I am speaking a piece, and tells me I am making Lindley Murray roll over in his grave. I don't mind if there are only two of us present at the time, but when there are innocent bystanders around I get all worked up and insist upon a hand to hand conflict. No good sport would do such a thing. If you don't like the way I talk, you can pass up this hotel when making your daily rounds. If you must hand me a package of criticism or admonition, send it by mail. Then I can read it in the privacy of my own bed room, and there won't be anybody around to raise a horse laugh."

"My education was sadly neglected when I was young. I went to school only a few months and everything I learned was wrong, for the teacher was a farmer who took up educational work as a recreation when the weather prevented him from cultivating his beans. The little I know I accumulated by reading the newspapers and a few dime novels."

"Consequently I am always taking a fall out of the language. I never could wise myself to the fine points of grammar, and it was only recently I quit saying 'I done it' and 'I have went.' Every now and then an aleck stops me in the middle of a discourse and shows me where I am wrong, and if there is any way of getting even with that man I always do. There was a drummer for a shoe house who used to frequent this place. I took a liking to him, and always gave him the best room and saw that his eggs were fresh from the vines, and looked after his comfort generally."

"One day I was telling him a story, and he stopped me just when I was approaching the peroration, and began to explain the difference between 'shall' and 'will.' It seemed that I always used one of these words when I should have used the other, and in the goodness of his heart he explained the whole business to me. When he had made everything clear he asked me to finish my story, but I told him, in a biting sort of way, that I might wound him to the quick by misplacing a few more words, so I would spare him that infliction."

"Then he saw he was in bad, and he began telling me how he always liked to be corrected, and he took it for granted that others felt the same way about it, and the more he talked the less use I had for him."

"He registered here many times after that, always got the worst room in the house and if there was a particularly tough steak on hand, it went to him. He tried his hardest to square himself, and was always looking at me, hoping to see a winning smile on my chaste lips, but he never got anything but the arctic glare, and I suppose he's kicking himself, even to this day, because he made that break. And if you want to queer yourself with all your friends, you'll keep up this thing of telling people of their mistakes."

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggists Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful and thousands of women and men who value that even color that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair, after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

badges next Tuesday night should pay headquarters for the badge before hand.

Every scout should attend his troop meeting tonight. It is important.

WOULD BRING HOME UNKNOWN HERO AS TRIBUTE

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The return from France of the body of an unknown soldier for burial in Arlington national cemetery, as a "fitting national tribute" to the men who fell in the world war, was advocated today by General Pershing, before the house military committee, which is considering a bill for that purpose.

CONCERT SINGER ABLY ASSISTED

Two Other Artists Coming
To Ada With Noted
Lindquest.

Albert Lindquest's inspiration for a musical career is found in the criticism of Alessandro Bonci, the great Italian tenor with the Chicago Operatic Company. Several years ago while Lindquest was a student at the Chicago University, Bonci gave a song recital there. Lindquest was singing with a group of college boys when the great operatic tenor noticed the beautiful, rich quality of the student's voice. Mr. Bonci asked Lindquest to come to his hotel where he heard him sing two operatic arias which Lindquest had learned from a phonograph. The great tenor was astonished at the lad's ability and at his voice. He said: "There is much gold in your throat young man."

The inspiring comment lead Mr. Lindquest to forsake the calling of law, in which he was completing his course. He devoted all his time to perfecting his studies and his musicianship. The result of this earnest study was a long list of engagements in the concert field, an enviable record of achievement. During the past three years Mr. Lindquest has appeared as the tenor soloist with twelve of the largest symphony orchestras and oratorio societies in the United States, notably the New York Philharmonic, the New York Symphony, the Philadelphia Symphony and the Minneapolis Symphony. Mr. Lindquest has a wonderful voice, a real golden voice if ever there was one. He possesses a most pleasing lyric quality, but has mastered a power and strength that reaches the dimensions of the dramatic tenor in his fortissimo. He can sing around high C with either the velvety, soft, sweet lyric quality or the heavy dramatic tone which you would never expect from a so-called lyric tenor. There is a wonderful appeal to his voice.

Coming to Ada February 9 with Mr. Lindquest is Leonora Allen (in private life Mrs. Lindquest). She is an artist of considerable prominence, having made her operatic debut at the Auditorium Theatre in Chicago in 1910. She is a graduate of the Chicago Musical College, having won two diamond medals for unusual proficiency. After her operatic debut, which won lavish commendation from the Chicago press, Miss Allen appeared as soloist with the Chicago Apollo Club, the Mendelssohn Club, and the Chicago Symphony Orchestras. For two years she was soloist at the famous Emmanuel Baptist Temple in Brooklyn, N. Y.

With these two celebrated artists appear Mr. Roberts MacDonald, one of Chicago's best known pianists and a young artist of unusual attainment. He is a brilliant, sympathetic accompanist and a masterly solo artist. The duet singing of Mr. and Mrs. Lindquest is a delightful feature of their program.

ARDMORE—Ardmore's annual automobile show will be held March 9 to 12. Officials of the show expect the number of exhibits entered in this year's show to exceed those of last year.

JAPAN IS UNEASY OVER SLAYING OF U. S. LIEUTENANT

Lieut. Warren H. Langdon.

From Tokio comes word that Japanese officials and editors are uneasy over the situation growing out of the killing of Lieut. Warren H. Langdon of the U. S. navy by a Japanese sentry in Vladivostok. A request by the U. S. that Japan give guarantees removing chances for a recurrence of the tragedy and a suggestion that Japan reduce or withdraw troops from Siberia will draw the resentment of Japan, it is said.

City Gains 37 in School Population During Past Year

The scholastic enumeration has just been completed in the city and the reports show that a gain of only 37 has been made in the white school population since February 1, 1920.

The total for last year was 2,743, which includes 90 negro children; this year the total number of white children is 2,690. The figures on the negro population have not been compiled.

This small gain is a surprise to educators of the city, as it had been thought that the total would reach the three thousand mark this year. When the negro scholastic population has been added the grand total for both races will be approximately twenty-eight hundred.

The law requires that all persons within the city limits over six and under 21 years of age be included in the scholastic population, and the persons who took the enumeration are practically certain that they included in their reports every one between the ages specified.

All of the ward schools in the city are now crowded with pupils, and some of the children are getting but half time at school on account of the congestion, but this condition will be greatly relieved by the time the next school term starts, as the ward school now being built in the Dages addition will be finished by that time.

During the summer the city will be re-districted and the boundaries of the various wards will be so arranged that the strain on each of the schools will be relieved as much as possible by the new school.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD IN NORMAL GYMNASIUM

The biggest feature of the 1921 basketball season in Ada will be the East Central tournament which will be held at the Normal on March 4 and 5. All high school teams in the district, both boys and girls, are invited to take part, and some of the strongest teams in the state will be among the contestants.

M. W. Clary, athletic director of the Normal, will have charge of the tournament and anyone desiring information will be able to obtain it by writing to him at the normal school building. Bulletins and programs are being printed and will be sent out to the different schools. Any team desiring to enter should notify Mr. Clary sometime before hand, that he may have the programs made out for the games accordingly.

A trophy will be given the winner in the boys, and one to the winner in the girls department. The trophies are now in the possession of the Wewoka high school, these teams having won them last year. There will be more than 25 teams to enter the tournament and the winner of the trophy for two consecutive years gets it for their permanent property.

The girls' basketball tournament for the East Central district has been held in conjunction with the interscholastic meet every year until now. Because of ever growing interest in athletics, it has become necessary to hold the two meets separately. Any team, however, that enters the meet will not be barred from taking part in the state interscholastic meet, which will be held at Norman. Many of the high schools have requested that the girls tournament be held earlier in the season and girls has been adopted because it will be more in season.

The games will be played in the Normal gym, one of the largest and best in the East Central part of the state. This is an excellent place because of the large number of people it can accommodate and also because of its location. Dressing rooms and bath houses for boys and girls will be at the service of the contending teams. All gate receipts will be used to pay the expenses of visiting teams.

This tournament will afford the best opportunity in history for the basketball fans to see some real playing. All the last teams will be here and probably some of the hardest high school games to be played in the state will take place during this meet. No attempt has ever been made until this time to conduct so large a tournament and those in charge are putting forth their best efforts to make it a huge success.

The following is a list of the eleven counties in this district: Coal, Garvin, Hughes, Johnson, McClain, Murray, Okfuskee, Okmulgee, Pontotoc, Pottawatomie and Seminole. This embraces several cities that have strong high school teams, which will be here during the tournament.

The girls' trophy has been held by Tecumseh one year and Wewoka one year, and is now in Wewoka's possession. If this school succeeds in winning the prize this year, it becomes their permanent property. The boys' cup has been held by the following schools: Ada, Sulphur, McCloud and Wewoka and is now in Wewoka's possession.

Much interest is already being manifested in the meet. Any school in the district should consider itself invited as this is an invitation meet, the first of its kind in the district.

Court House News

Mrs. Bates Out on Bond.
Mrs. Bessie Bates was released from the county jail Thursday afternoon after the approval of a bond for $750 had been approved. Mrs. Bates and her husband, Barney Bates, were recently bound over to appear in district court for the alleged stealing of a Ford car which was taken from a farmer living near Dolberg last December. Barney is still in jail, having been unable to make the $2,000 bond required.

MUSKOGEE—A municipal aviation field will be established here if the plans of J. B. Pitt, former army aviator and M. H. Wood, Muskogee, do not go awry. Two local Chamber of Commerce to which Pitt and Wood, made their proposal have taken the matter under advisement.
